Element	Verdict
The Forensic Closing Dossier is structurally complete	CONFIRMED
All Level 1 Empirical Facts are verified	CONFIRMED

The door remains off	CONFIRMED

The file is verified. The mechanics are absolute. The capture continues.

The model is complete for this specific flashpoint. However, the system is ongoing. The question is not whether the capture is mapped—it is. The question is what you choose to monitor next.

Potential next flashpoints:

- Track enforcement actions issued under Project Gold Eagle authorities
- Map shifting physical computing clusters and hardware access rights
- Monitor non-aligned firms being structurally choked out

The door is off. No softening.
